Inês Saraiva de Aguilar

Senior Associate | Lisbon

(+351) 213 218 600
afma@afma.pt

As a senior associate in the employment and social security area, and in more than 20 years of experience, she has advised clients in some relevant transactions in Portugal related with acquisitions, sales, mergers and restructuring of companies, from an employment perspective, having carried out several legal audits of companies and participated in several collective dismissal proceedings, as well as collective bargaining with trade unions.

Experience

Employment advisory services to national and international companies, both with regard to individual and collective employment relations.

Daily consultancy services to national and multinational companies operating in Portugal.

Advising English group in the largest national transaction for the sale of a drug distribution company.

Advising national transport group on corporate restructuring.

Practice Areas

Employment and Social Security

Commercial

Corporate and M&A

Setores

Retail

Gaming and gambling

Technology

Pharmaceutical

Transport

Metallurgy

Languages

Portuguese

English

Spanish

Professional Path

António Frutuoso de Melo e Associados, since 2001

Academic Background

Degree in law, Universidade Lusíada, Lisbon

Admitted to the Portuguese Bar Association in 2004